Is Worshiping God a "Little" Different Ok?

"Just being a little different," shows an attitude that leads to that difference. This attitude is important to consider.

In 1 Samuel 15:1-3, King Saul was told to destroy all the Amalekites and their animals because of their opposition to God and His people. But he didn't. He spared King Agag, and he brought back the best animals "for sacrifice unto the Lord."

Samuel spoke for God when he said, "Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry" (1 Samuel 15:22-23).

For us today the Bible says, "For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; how shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation?" (Hebrews 2:2-3). All through the Bible, God has always demanded obedience.

Cain brought a sacrifice to God, but it wasn't accepted (Genesis 4).

Nadab and Abihu offered "strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not" (Leviticus 10:1), and God destroyed them.

God said that no one was to touch the Ark of the Covenant. When it was about to fall, Uzzah reached forth his hand and prevented it from falling (2 Samuel 6:6-7). When he did, "God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God."

Our purpose is to "fear God, and keep his commandments" (Ecclesiastes 12:13). Jesus still asked, "Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46). Christ is "the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him" (Hebrews 5:9).

Let us all have the conviction to accept what God has said and the determination to live by it. We shall be judged only by Him and His word: "The word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day" (John 12:48).

I Met the Strangest Man

He said he believes in the Bible as the Word of God—but he never reads it.

He said the church would be more effective in its ministries if more of its members were really dedicated—but he never becomes involved in any ministry.

He said he feels the church assemblies are times for edification and praise to God—but he seldom attends.

He said he believes the younger generation needs stronger spiritual values—but doesn't exemplify strong spirituality in his life before his children.

He said the church is not doing the work the Lord intends it to do—but he is not working.

He said he believes that God hears and answers prayers—but he seldom prays.

He said he knows the Lord is coming again—but lives as though the Lord will never come.

Great changes come to the world through small decisions by ordinary people. Be the change God wants to see in our world!
